years a leading member of the bar. Mr. Bates is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and of the Harvard Law School. He was admitted to the bar in 1869, and at once opened an office in Wilmington. The same year he was appointed Deputy Attorney General of Delaware, which office he held for five years. He has been for years a leader of the Democratic party and in 1881 was elected to the Delaware Legislature. The following January he was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives. He was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1880 and 1884, In 1887 he took an active part in favor of the proposed convention to revise the Constitution of the State. In 1889 President Cleveland appointed Mr. Bates a Special Commissioner of the United States to unite with Commissioners of Great Britain and Germany in an investigation of the political condition of Samoa, and also on the same trip to proceed to Tonga and negotiate a treaty with that kingdom. He reported the following December. Most of his report was printed by the State Department. A part, consisting of opinions and including a strenuous argument for the getting up of an American protectorate, was dropped by Mr. Bayard, and was afterward published by Mr. Bates in sm interview in a New York newspaper

During his term of office a greater number of Swedes emigrated to this country than during any other period, and this large emigration is said to have been directly due to his efforts. He is a native of Maine, and was graduated from Bowden College in 1880. Soon after he served as Vice-Consul-General at Constantinople and Consul at Gothenburg, Sweden. He returned to this country and began the practice of law, but was in 1870 sent the will be purpose of recruiting a Swedish colony to settle within her borders. A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than soventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle; it helped ker more, bought another and graw better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

"Who is H. H. Warner, of Rochester, N. Y., whose Safe Remedies, especially Warner's Safe Cure, have attained such success and celebrity at home and abroad?"

His charities are as ready and magnificent as his enterprises and public spirit are boundless.

The world has need of more such men. An incident led him into the manufacture of medicine. Seizedsome twelve years ago with what the ablest physicians termed fatal kidney disease, he was miraculously restored to health by what is now known as Warner's Safe Cure. At once he resolved to make known the merits of so potent a remedy, and the consequence is that to-day he has immense laboratories and warehouses in the United States, Canada, England, Germany, Austria, Australia and Burnah. Sales of his Safe Remedies are enormous, and their power over disease simply marvelous.

A railroad train, the "Montexuma special," now runs from New York direct to the city of Mexico. It leaves on Tuesday and reaches its destination the following Sanday. By and by—and it may not be a very long time either—we shall be able to ride by rail from New York ork to Rio Janeiro, without change of cars. Only a few links of road need building to make this a possibility.
